Nomad Aviation adds Airbus A319ACJ to its Charter Fleet

November 30, 2018

Nomad Aviation has added an Airbus A319 Corporate Jet (ACJ) to its Swiss AOC which will be available for charter as of December 3rd, 2018.

The Airbus A319ACJ is a version of the popular airliner outfitted for the ultimate VVIP experience. Equipped with extra fuel tanks the aircraft can fly non-stop for up to 10 hours, connecting intercontinental cities in unparalleled comfort and style.

This A319ACJ offers a spacious, tasteful and ultra-modern interior completed in 2018. The hallmark of the aircraft's luxurious 19 passenger layout is the dedicated master bedroom with its queen-size bed and a full en-suite bathroom including a shower. Charter clients can enjoy unmatched space and freedom of movement throughout the 24-meter-long cabin featuring various dining, meeting and lounge areas. A fully equipped forward galley enables for uncompromised fine dining at altitude. The latest state of the art cabin technology comprises of mood lighting, DVD, Apple TV, multiple large HD flat-screen displays, Airshow, satellite phone as well as Ka-band high-speed internet allowing for quick and effortless connectivity just like at home or in the office.

"We are delighted to add this magnificent Airbus to our fleet as it represents the ultimate in space, range, utility and productivity and ideally complements our existing charter aircraft. Thanks to the efforts made by the various stakeholders and authorities, we were able to fully incorporate this aircraft into our Swiss AOC within a matter of just 4 weeks which makes us extremely proud," said Thomas Köhli, CEO of Nomad Aviation. "We are looking forward to expanding our portfolio with this A319ACJ. This will be a unique opportunity for our charter clients to experience the ultimate private jet experience," added Christoph Thurnherr, Nomad Aviation's Vice President Aircraft Management & Sales.
