Nomad Aviation adds a Bombardier CRJ 100SE to its aircraft management fleet.

Zurich / Geneva, May 29, 2018

Nomad Aviation has added a Bombardier CRJ 100SE to its aircraft management fleet.

The aircraft offers a wide range of technologies and options in cabin amenities and has a seating-capacity of up to 19 passengers. The cabin sections, fitted with single and double leather seats and a sofa, add to the privacy during flights. The CRJ 100 is based on the proven and successful regional jet design that delivers speed and a smooth flight.

The business jet features an aft lavatory, a forward galley and a large cargo compartment ensuring sufficient space for plenty of luggage. It can fly nonstop in excess of 3'500 km / 2'000 nm, covering flights between major city-pairs in Europe, Middle East and in Africa.

“The CRJ 100SE is an exciting aircraft which provides the ultimate flight performance and comfort for a large group of Passengers”, says Thomas Koehli, CEO of Nomad Aviation. “For our customer important are availability, safety and confidentiality, flexibility and travelling possibilities”, adds Andreas Pfisterer, Senior VP Aircraft Management of Nomad Aviation.”

Nomad Aviation, based in Switzerland, offers aircraft management and charter services. It operates an exclusive fleet of aircraft, ranging from light to ultra-long-range jets including Gulfstream 650, Gulfstream 450, Bombardier Global 5000, Challenger 604, CRJ 100, Embraer Legacy 650 and 600, Cessna CJ2+ and CJ1+ and Beech Premier 1. Nomad Aviation has offices in Zurich/Kloten, Switzerland and Sliema, Malta.
